Key Focus: Helping Business Leaders Navigate Career Transitions

Michael Alan Tate works with successful executives, entrepreneurs, and technical professionals who are seeking a simple action-focused plan to effectively manage career transitions, keep teams on the same page, and prepare for positive leadership succession.

With over 20 years experience as an executive coach, consultant, and strategist, Mike knows that busy people want to navigate the murky waters of career transition as quickly and effectively as possible. Drawing on his own experience, Mike developed a unique consulting method in which he helps each of his clients create a powerful and succinct strategic plan, incorporating prioritized actions and accountabilitys set in a whole-life perspective -- all in just 24 hours.

AUTHOR & PODCASTER:

Michael has been an executive consultant and career coach for more than 20 years. He is the founder and president of On the Same Page Consulting, master facilitator, podcast host and best-selling author. His first book, Design a Life that Works, teaches how to balance business, career, family and personal values in an individual strategic life plan. Mike's latest book The White Shirt, is a career parable with tools to create successful career move strategies. His next book Roll Up Your Sleeves- Living and Leading in a World of Constant Change will be released Fall 2020. It is his second book in his White Shirt business parable series.

His podcast is called Small-Time Leaders. It is a series of 10-minute interviews where accomplished business leaders tell stories about significant people who did or said a small thing that made a big difference in the way they lead and live to this day. Mike is an avid outdoorsman, five-time grandfather and active Rotarian.

PRESENTER & PLANNER:

Let Mike design a presentation for your next your group event or team retreat. In his interactive and entertaining way, he reminds people of the important things they already know and adds in an idea or two they need to consider to make their next move their best move in their leadership and life.

His time-saving compression planning process brings teams to consensus and on the same page. As Mike says, "A darn good plan today is better than a perfect plan 6 months from tomorrow."
